First Sunday after the Epiphany | January 11, 2026

The word Epiphany comes from the Greek word epiphania, which means "manifestation." In basic terms, it means "a revealing" or "an 'aha' moment." It's about noticing when something becomes clear—especially when God shows up in ways we might not expect.

We celebrate Epiphany on January 6, remembering the visit of the magi, who followed a star and discovered God's love revealed in the Christ child. Their journey reminds us that God meets people wherever they are and draws them forward with light and hope.

The weeks that follow are known as the Season of Epiphany. During this season (this year that's January 6 – February 17) we listen and look for the many ways Christ—our guiding light—continues to be revealed in the world and in our everyday lives.

We gather, looking for the star—light that points us toward God's work in the world.

God, help us see your glory.

We gather, listening for the Spirit—good news whispered in unlikely places.

God, help us notice your glory.

We gather, drawn by Love—assured we are not alone and Love will have the final word.

God, help us encounter your glory.

* Please rise in body or in spirit.

Blessed Be the God of Israel

 Affirmation of Faith | The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic[†] church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

 Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Pastoral Prayer with The Lord's Prayer

Our father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

MUSIC NOTES

As our observance of Epiphany continues, we turn to one of the most historically significant Epiphany hymns: Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern (How Brightly Shines the Morning Star), written by Lutheran pastor Philip Nicolai in 1597. The popular tune (#247 in our hymnal) serves as the basis for all of today's organ music, beginning with the Prelude by Johann Pachelbel (1653-1706). Remembered by modern audiences primarily for his iconic Canon in D, Pachelbel is recognized by scholars as one of the most significant German musicians prior to J.S. Bach. It is a cousin of the great Johann Sebastian, Johann Christoph Bach (1642-1703), who provides today's Postlude. Though not as well-known as his illustrious relation, he was a respected musician who left behind a number of sacred works. The Offertory is by Gael Liardon (1973-2018), a tragically short-lived Swiss composer and keyboardist.

Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern appears again in the closing section of our Anthem, There Shall a Star from Jacob Come Forth, by the brilliant 19th century composer Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847). Written as part of Mendelssohn's unfinished oratorio, Christus, this brief work conflates prophetic text from the book of Numbers with Nicolai's popular hymn to emphasize the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies in the New Testament narrative of the Christ of Bethlehem.

*There shall a star come out of Jacob,
and a sceptre shall rise out of Israel.*

*How brightly shines the morning star,
With mercy beaming from afar.
The host of heaven rejoices.*

Amen! Alleluia! Thine be praise and adoration.
